NASHVILLE SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – June 10, 2008 – The Nashville Shakespeare Festival has added Jim Cartiglia, Dana Delworth and Trina Morrow to its board of directors.

Cartiglia is a partner with Waddey & Patterson, P.C., a Nashville-based intellectual property law firm. During his 25 years of practice, Cartiglia has handled patent and trademark protection, enforcement and transfer in the U.S. and internationally. He will serve on the fundraising, development and advocacy committee for the Nashville Shakespeare Festival.

Delworth is the chief operating officer of CLG Title and Escrow Services, LLC. Previously, she served on the boards of the Tennessee Environmental Council, Actor's Bridge and Artrageous, Inc. Delworth will serve on the board's marketing and publicity committee.

Morrow is team manager of auction accounts at Manheim Transport. She will serve on the Nashville Shakespeare Festival's education, programming and volunteer committee.

About Nashville Shakespeare Festival

The mission of the Nashville Shakespeare Festival is to educate and entertain the Mid-South community through professional Shakespearean experiences. The Festival accomplishes this primarily through its public productions of Shakespeare in the Park in the summer and Winter Shakespeare at The Truitt Theater and its educational workshops for young people and businesses.
